Brittany's best golf courses on one brand new site

Brand new site, www.golf-brittanytourism.com brings together the best of Brittany's golf courses and Brittany's Celtic connection means you can play out your very own Ryder Cup, just a hop across the Channel.

The latest addition to Brittany Tourism's themed bite-sized sites, www.golf-brittanytourism.com brings together Brittany's best golf courses on one easy-to-use site.

The site has everything you need to plan your golf break in Brittany from golf course guides, getting there info and ideas for what to do when you're all played out. There is even a section dedicated to the Breton take on the 19th hole.

Golf in Brittany offers great value green fees and has the benefit of being easy to get to from the UK. Still relatively little known, the greens are uncrowded and, of course, you're surrounded by the spectacular Breton countryside. Once you've worked up an appetite after a day's golf, indulge in Brittany's fresh-from-the-sea shellfish or a hearty regional speciality, relax and enjoy your holiday...

Brittany Tourism urges people to Be Breizh! and as Breizh is the Breton word for Brittany, it's an invitation to discover the real Brittany – on and off the golf course. Discover the unique Breton spirit, invigorating countryside and come back feeling refreshed and revived with a whole new lease of life...
